

An Evening With:
Br. Ramanand

Devotional Music and Spiritual Talk based on the teachings of AMMA (Mata Amritanadamayi).

SATURDAY, APRIL 10 2010 | 5:00 PM

THE ROSE TEMPLE

Devotional Performing Arts Center
305 Rose Avenue, Venice, CA 90291

Br. Ramanand met Amma first when he was just 5 years old and he had the fortune of being in the ashram, with Amma, from a very young age. Br. Ramanand's education had been throughout in Amma's school and University. His seva at the ashram was at Amma's University, teaching and managing some administrative work. Amma sent Ramanand to the US, in August 2008, to pursue his PhD at Maryland. Br. Ramanand has a melodious voice and has composed many bhajans which he leads with Amma. The latest punjabi bhajans like Meri Jhoppidi and Maiyyaji have been his recent compositions. Br. Ramanand resides at the newly inaugurated M.A. Center in Washington DC.

Program is FREE. All are welcome.

5:00PM Bhajan Class with Br. Ramanand

*6:00PM Evening program to include Pada Puja, Satsang, Video clip and discussion, Devotional Music
Vegetarian meal $7. Parking $5 or limited free street parking.*

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT

Bhavesh 510-326-6225 or Bhavesh@Ammateam.org | Karen 310-913-1795 or karen@ammateam.org